

New claims acquired by staking in December 2007 are shown in yellow. Note large, northeast-trending uranium radiometric anomaly in the northern Otish property. The Lac Henri boulder field is within southeastern parts of the anomaly. Even more intense radiometrics than in the boulder field lie to the southwest.